Woodlands Children's Centre Extended Schools Activity Programme February Half Term 2012

Welcome to our February Half Term Activity Programme. We have a range of services for children aged 0-12 years of age. All our activities are FREE. Parents with children 5 and under must remain in the Centre.

Stay and play sessions do not require any booking, just turn up during the advertised times. These sessions are just for children aged 0—5 years of age. Please do not bring older children to these sessions.

Cheerleading For ages 5-12 years. Join Sophie and Yasmin for a two hour fun activity session. Please ensure your child is appropriately dressed, with trainers or plimsolls. Please bring a drink.

Valentine Crafts For ages 5-12 years. Join us for a two hour session of crafts and games around a valentine theme...make a present for someone you love!

African Drumming and Crafts For ages 5-12 years. Join us for a two hour session where you can learn how to make simple rhythms on the African drums and do related crafts

Children attending the Extended Schools Activities must have an application form completed by their parent/carer before attending. If your child has a special or additional need please can you inform us when booking. This will enable us to provide additional staff should they be required.

In order to maintain a safe and enjoyable environment children are expected to listen to and follow instructions from the coaches/ facilitators. Failure to do so could result in a child being asked to leave a session.
